152.5 ARTICLE I

152.6 PURPOSE

152.7 The compacting states to this Interstate Compact recognize that each state is responsible 152.8 for the proper supervision or return of juveniles, delinquents, and status offenders who are 152.9 on probation or parole and who have absconded, escaped, or run away from supervision
152.10 and control and in so doing have endangered their own safety and the safety of others. The 152.11 compacting states also recognize that each state is responsible for the safe return of juveniles
152.12 who have run away from home and in doing so have left their state of residence. The 152.13 compacting states also recognize that Congress, by enacting the Crime Control Act, United 152.14 States Code, title 4, section 112 (1965), has authorized and encouraged compacts for 152.15 cooperative efforts and mutual assistance in the prevention of crime.

152.16 It is the purpose of this compact, through means of joint and cooperative action among 152.17 the compacting states to:

152.18 (A) ensure that the adjudicated juveniles and status offenders subject to this compact 152.19 are provided adequate supervision and services in the receiving state as ordered by the 152.20 adjudicating judge or parole authority in the sending state;

- 152.21 (B) ensure that the public safety interests of the citizens, including the victims of juvenile 152.22 offenders, in both the sending and receiving states are adequately protected;
- 152.23 (C) return juveniles who have run away, absconded, or escaped from supervision or 152.24 control or have been accused of an offense to the state requesting their return;
- 152.25 (D) make contracts for the cooperative institutionalization in public facilities in member 152.26 states for delinquent youth needing special services;
- 152.27 (E) provide for the effective tracking and supervision of juveniles;
- 152.28 (F) equitably allocate the costs, benefits, and obligations of the compact states;
- 152.29 (G) establish procedures to manage the movement between states of juvenile offenders
152.30 released to the community under the jurisdiction of courts, juvenile departments, or any 152.31 other criminal or juvenile justice agency which has jurisdiction over juvenile offenders;
- 153.1 (H) insure immediate notice to jurisdictions where defined juvenile offenders are 153.2 authorized to travel or to relocate across state lines;
- 153.3 (I) establish procedures to resolve pending charges (detainers) against juvenile offenders 153.4 prior to transfer or release to the community under the terms of this compact;
- 153.5 (J) establish a system of uniform data collection on information pertaining to juveniles
153.6 subject to this compact that allows access by authorized juvenile justice and criminal justice
153.7 officials, and regular reporting of compact activities to heads of state; executive, judicial,
153.8 and legislative branches; and juvenile criminal justice administrators;
- 153.9 (K) monitor compliance with rules governing interstate movement of juveniles and 153.10 initiate interventions to address and correct noncompliance;
- 153.11 (L) coordinate training and education regarding the regulation of interstate movement 153.12 of juveniles for officials involved in such activity; and
- 153.13 (M) coordinate the implementation and operation of the compact with the Interstate
153.14 Compact for the Placement of Children, the Interstate Compact for Adult Offender
153.15 Supervision, and other compacts affecting juveniles particularly in those cases where 153.16 concurrent or overlapping supervision issues arise.
- 153.17 It is the policy of the compacting states that the activities conducted by the Interstate
153.18 Commission created herein are the information of public policies and therefore are public
153.19 business. Furthermore, the compacting states shall cooperate and observe their individual
153.20 and collective duties and responsibilities for the prompt return and acceptance of juveniles
153.21 subject to the provisions of this compact. The provisions of this compact shall be reasonably 153.22 and liberally construed to accomplish the purpose and policies of the compact.
